Ethanol giveaway at antique tractor show

The Nebraska Ethanol Board is planning a fuel giveaway at the UN-L Tractor Museum this Saturday.

The Larsen Tractor Museum's annual open house is set for Saturday, June 4th from 10 am to 2 pm. The Nebraska Ethanol Board will offer three gallons of free E10 to the first 25 registered gas powered tractors.

Registered entrants can pick up their coupon for three free gallons of E10 from the Nebraska Ethanol Board at the 1920 Model T Ford on display at the Museum.

E10 is a blend of 10% ethanol and 90% gasoline that can run in any vehicle, small engine, or recreational vehicle. Many older vehicles, including the Model-T and several antique tractors, were designed to run on ethanol fuels.
